General conditions

1 Information about you

We have based this policy on the information provided to us by you. It is therefore important that you take reasonable care to provide us with correct information if we ask you a question.

2 Incorrect information

If you do give us information that is incorrect:

- a. we can avoid the policy if you deliberately or recklessly gave us incorrect information. This means we can treat the policy as if it never existed and refuse to pay all claims. You will have to pay back any payment we have already made. We can keep the premium; or
- b. if you were careless in giving us the information, we can:
 - i. avoid the policy if we would not have entered into the policy. This means we can treat the policy as if it never existed and refuse to pay all claims. You will have to pay back any payment we have already made. However, we will return the premium;
 - ii. amend the terms of the policy if we would only have entered into it on different terms if you had given us accurate information. Those terms will apply from the start of the period of insurance; or
 - iii. reduce the amount we pay for a claim if we would have charged a higher premium. The amount we pay will be the same proportion that the actual premium charged bears to the premium we would have charged. For example, if we would have charged twice the premium, we will pay half of any claim.

We may apply both ii. and iii. above.

3 Changes to your information

We will provide you with a document entitled 'Statement of Fact'. It is important that you tell us if any of the information in that document changes at any time. This includes any changes to the criminal record of anyone insured under the policy.

We will then let you know if we need to make any changes to the terms of the policy or the premium.

If you do not let us know about any changes, we can apply the remedies set out above in condition 2 Incorrect information.

4 Cancellation

a. Your right to cancel in the cooling-off period

You have a right to cancel this policy for any reason within the first 14 days of the start of cover (or your renewal date) or the date you receive your policy documentation if this is later.

No charge will be made and any premium you have already paid will be refunded, provided that between the start date (or your renewal date) and the date that you cancel:

- you have not made a claim and
- you are not aware of any incidents that may give rise to a claim.

If you do make a claim or you are aware of an incident which may give rise to a claim then you must pay the annual premium in full.

b. Your right to cancel after the cooling-off period

If you do not cancel the policy within the 14 day cooling-off period mentioned above, the policy is in force and you are committed to pay the premium. However, you can still cancel the policy providing you tell us. As long as you have not made a claim, or are not aware of an incident which may give rise to a claim, during the current period of insurance you will receive a refund of the part of your premium which covers the cancelled period, providing this exceeds £15. If you have made a claim or you are aware of an incident that may give rise to a claim during the current period of insurance then you must pay the annual premium in full.

c. Cancellation by us

We can cancel the policy at any time by sending you at least 14 days' written notice by Special Delivery to your last known address. We will only cancel the policy for a valid reason. Valid reasons include:

If any such sanction prohibition or restriction takes effect during the period of insurance you or we may cancel that part of this policy which is affected with immediate effect by giving such notice in writing.

In such circumstances we shall return a proportionate premium for the unexpired period of cover provided no claims have been paid or are outstanding.

7 Multiple policyholders

The most we will pay is the relevant amount shown in the schedule.

If more than one insured is named in the schedule, the total amount we will pay will not exceed the amount we would be liable to pay to any one of you.
